Consent to Data Processing and Communication

As you know, the new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) comes into law on 25th May 2018. Part of the requirements of the new law will be that we obtain your consent to our holding of your personal data and to your receiving trading, marketing and other communications from us.

You are obliged to provide your consent, and even if you do, you are entitled to withdraw it at any time, in which case we will delete your data from our records. However, if you decide not to supply your consent, we will be unable to contact you, and you may miss out on the goods and services we are able to offer.

Your privacy is important to us, as you will see from the attached Privacy Policy. We will never share your data without your consent. Your data will be stored securely, and we will only send communications to you that are relevant. By completing the simple form below, we will be able to keep in touch and to sustain our business relationship.

I hereby give my consent for Salus Contracts Ltd to retain my data in accordance with the relevant General Data Protection Regulations and to communicate with me in the following ways (please tick all that apply):
